EXPERIENCE

Cosairus | Software Consultant / Software Manager Feb 2024 – Present

- Designed, architected, and deployed full-stack production software for enterprise customers, owning solution architecture, customer delivery, and end-to-end implementation across cloud, mobile, and web platforms including Azure, Java Android, C#, ASP.NET MVC, SQL Server
- Served as the direct customer interface across all phases of development while translating ambiguous business needs into working prototypes, then iterating rapidly as requirements evolved
- Extensively leveraged AI-assisted engineering (Claude) for implementation, debugging, architecture exploration, and code review to accelerate delivery cycles across production development
- Architected and delivered PCI-compliant payment infrastructure including OAuth authentication, DEK/KEK encryption, EMV certification, and integrations with Elavon, Apple Wallet, and the Ingenico DX8000 Android POS terminal

Stonebranch | Software Engineer Intern 2022–2023

- Developed production backend features in C for enterprise workload automation software.
- Built TypeScript tooling that generated JSON Schema for input validation across 350+ customer deployments.
- Expanded GoogleTest coverage and delivered four production features released to customers.

PROJECTS

Airbnb Price Prediction Utility

- Built a Python machine learning model using regression, sentiment analysis, and geospatial data with a Django frontend.

Web-Based Appointment Scheduler

- Developed a Java scheduling platform integrating Zoom and QuickBooks APIs while collaborating directly with a client.
